UC Personal Insight Questions: Answer 4 of the 8 questions, 350 words or less.
See UC PIQ worksheet in your Senior Handbook for more assistance in completing the PIQs.

UC Advice for answering PIQs (info taken from UC application)

- Present your information and ideas in a focused, thoughtful manner. Making a list of accomplishments, activities, awards or work will lessen the impact of your words.
- Use specific, concrete examples to support the points you want to make. Focus your examples on the present and near past.
- Tell us about yourself. We want to know about your personal triumphs or challenges, leadership opportunities and experiences outside the classroom.
- Use your own voice. Your answers should reflect your ideas and be written by you alone. Use "I" and "my" statements in your responses.
- Try to relax. There are many pieces of information we consider in reviewing your application; an admission decision will not be based on your responses alone.

Private/Out of State Universities

Private and Out-of-State Universities vary in requirements, deadlines and ways to apply, check online. Common App is widely used, many require Letters of Rec (ask teacher & counselor early) and essay questions.

PEPPERDINE

Option 1: Community College

You can take your General Education classes (half of the classes required for a 4-year degree), then transfer to a 4-year college.

BENEFITS:

Community College is free if you go full time

Transfers get into highly competitive colleges at a higher rate

More time to decide, plan and save.

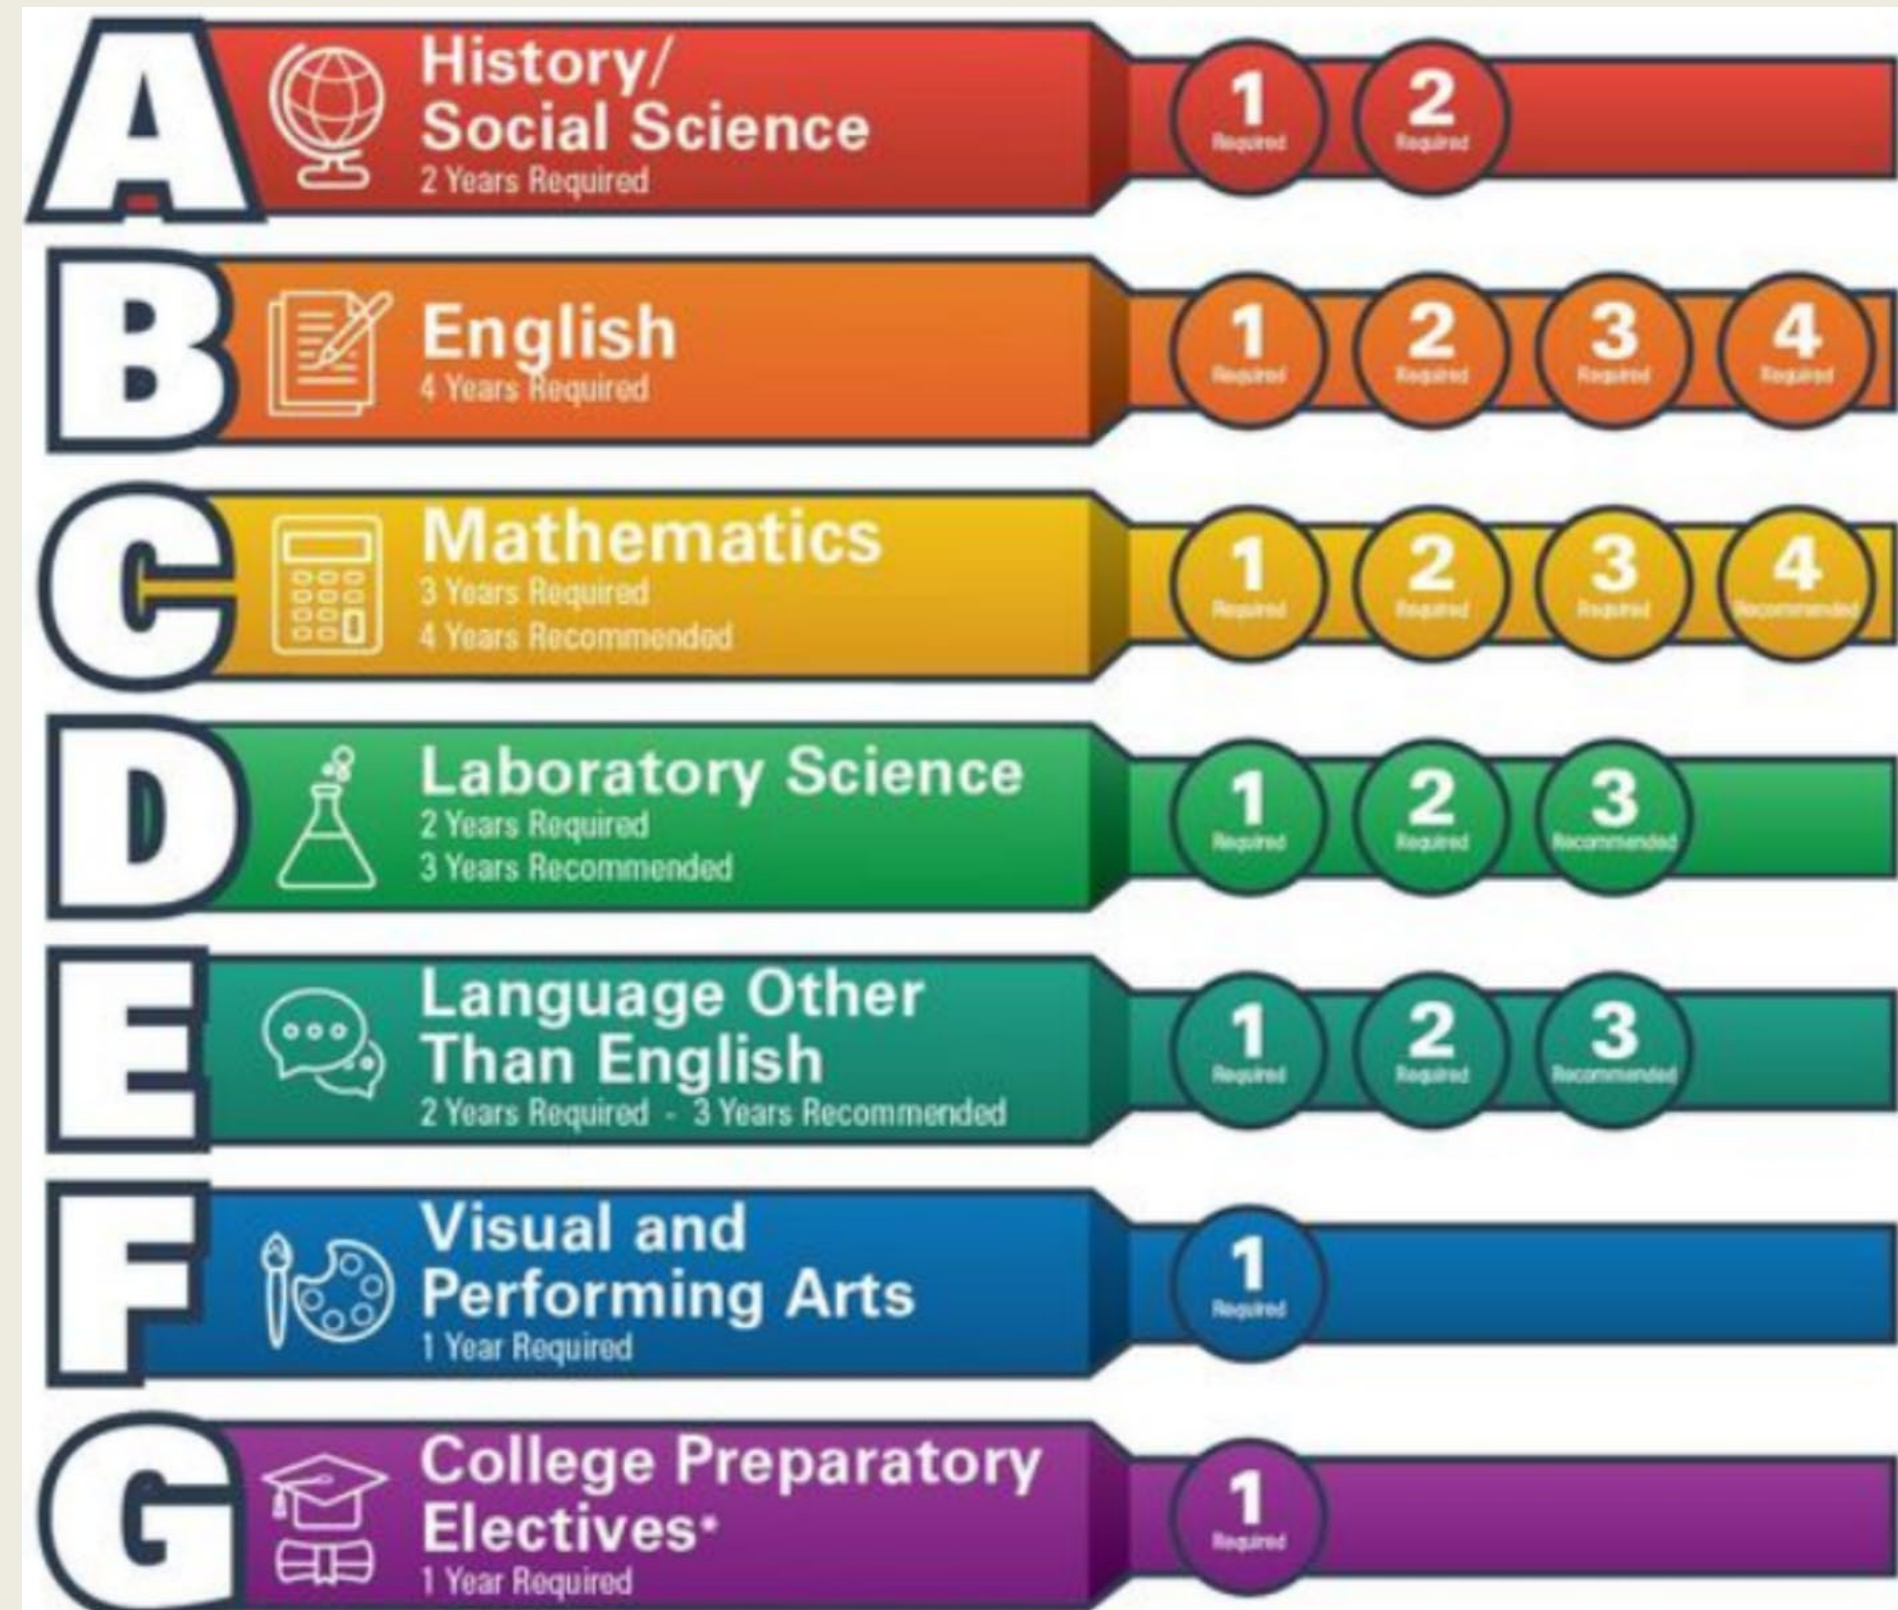

DRAWBACKS:

The rate of student's transferring in 2 years is low (15%)

Classes can fill up and you need to have a clear plan to finish on time

More transitions to finish college than going to 1 school

Public CA Colleges Entrance Requirements A-G

PERSONAL INSIGHT QUESTIONS GUIDE FOR FIRST-YEAR APPLICANTS

UNIVERSITY
CALIFORNIA

Getting started

This worksheet is designed to help first-year UC applicants start the writing process for the personal insight questions. Additional suggestions can be found on the UC admission website.

What are the Personal Insight Questions?

These questions are about getting to know you — your life experience, interests and accomplishments. Think of your responses as a conversation with the admissions office. Be open. Be reflective. Find your individual voice and express it.

While this section of the application is just one part we consider when making our admission decision, it helps provide context for the rest of your application.

The basics

- You have 8 questions to choose from. You must respond to any 4 of the 8 questions.
- Each response is limited to a maximum of 350 words.
- Which questions you choose to answer is entirely up to you, but you should select questions that are most relevant to your experience and that best reflect your individual circumstances.
- All questions are given equal consideration, which means there is no advantage or disadvantage to choosing certain questions over others. The questions are numbered, not ranked.
- Responses should explore your life and your accomplishments. When sharing examples, explain why they are relevant to the person you are today. The majority of your response should be about the present and/or recent past.

How to use this worksheet:

Read the questions, then write a draft for four personal insight questions. Make yourself the focus of each response.

Edit for content (facts about yourself) as the UC admissions reader is not looking at style or structure in your response.

Remember, there is no right or wrong topic to share in a personal insight question response.

The questions

1. Describe an example of your leadership experience in which you have positively influenced others, helped resolve disputes, or contributed to group efforts in your community.

- Was there a time when you stepped up to lead a group, team, family and describe the experience, then explain the impact to you.
- How did you grow from that leadership role? What impact did that have on others?

Tip: We do not need a definition of leadership. If you have a leadership role or title, describe it.

2. Every person has a creative side, and most people have creative talents that they do not use. Describe how you have used your creative talents.

- Give an example of your creativity (art, writing, problem solving, etc.).
- Was there ever a problem where your intuition guided you to the solution? How did you arrive at a solution, and what did you learn from the experience?
- Do you have a creative passion? What is this passion that has affected the life of those around you?

Tip: We do not have a definition of creativity. Use your own idea of creativity.

3. Describe how you have taken advantage of a significant educational opportunity or worked to overcome an educational barrier you have faced.

- Feel free to speak about an opportunity and/or a barrier. An opportunity could have come due to a barrier. Also, it is okay if you experience one and not the other.
- Are you engaged in educational or mentorship programs, or community-based organizations? Do you consider these opportunities? If so, what have you gained from the experience?
- Have you had to supplement your coursework online, at a community college/university or through another school?
- Are you in a magnet, academy or special curriculum at your school? Did you apply or were you pre-enrolled in the special curriculum?

Tip: We do not compare students to one another. Your response could set context for the reader who is looking at the academic history section of your application.

4. Describe the most significant challenge you have faced and the steps you have taken to overcome this challenge. How has this challenge affected your academic achievement?

- Have you had a difficult experience in your life? How did you get through it? Who are you today because of that time in your life? What did you learn from the experience?
- If you're currently working your way through the challenge, what are you doing now and does that affect different aspects of your life?

Tip: While your challenge can be personal, we are asking how it impacted your high school academic achievement.

CALIFORNIA

5. What would you say is your greatest talent or skill? How have you developed and demonstrated that talent over time?

- List what you consider your talents or skills.
- Which one of these talents or skills is the most meaningful or important to you and why? Does the talent come naturally or have you worked hard to develop this talent or skill?

Tip: You may have always had this talent or skill but we hope you will focus your answer on the present or recent past when it relates to this talent or skill.

6. Describe how you have taken advantage of a significant educational opportunity or worked to overcome an educational barrier you have faced.

- Feel free to speak about an opportunity and/or a barrier. An opportunity could have come due to a barrier. Also, it is okay if you experience one and not the other.
- Are you engaged in educational or mentorship programs, or community-based organizations? Do you consider these opportunities? If so, what have you gained from the experience?
- Have you had to supplement your coursework online, at a community college/university or through another school?
- Are you in a magnet, academy or special curriculum at your school? Did you apply or were you pre-enrolled in the special curriculum?

Tip: We do not compare students to one another. Your response could set context for the reader who is looking at the academic history section of your application.

7. Describe the most significant challenge you have faced and the steps you have taken to overcome this challenge. How has this challenge affected your academic achievement?

- Have you had a difficult experience in your life? How did you get through it? Who are you today because of that time in your life? What did you learn from the experience?
- If you're currently working your way through the challenge, what are you doing now and does that affect different aspects of your life?

Tip: While your challenge can be personal, we are asking how it impacted your high school academic achievement.

8. Think about an academic subject that inspires you. Describe how you have furthered this interest inside and/or outside of the classroom.

- Does this academic interest relate to activities or interest outside the classroom?
- Might the academic area tie in some way to your major or career path? If so, how and why is that important to you?
- What sparks your desire to learn?

Tip: We are not limiting you to traditional academic subjects or those in core academic areas.

9. What have you done to make your school or your community a better place?

- You saw a problem. What motivated you to act? What did you learn from your effort?
- Did you contribute to a positive change at your school or in your community? What steps have you taken to accomplish this? If you worked in a group you need to focus on your tasks, your role, and/or your responsibilities.

Tip: Even small changes can have a big impact. Admissions readers cannot click on links or search for your accomplishment online. You need to explain your accomplishment without external factors.

10. Beyond what has already been shared in your application, what do you believe makes you a strong candidate for admission to the University of California?

- Look at your transcript, resume and daily routine. Is there anything that you need to clarify, explain or elaborate on which we won't find in another PIQ?
- What did we not ask in the application that reflects on who you are as a student inside and/or outside of the classroom?

Tip: UC does not review unsolicited supplemental information (transcripts, letters of recommendation or resumes). Think of this question as a chance to add context or clarification about what we will find in your application.

Selecting your Program

You will now choose a campus and major that you would like to apply to.

Pick one for now, you can add more later.

You can type in the campus or use the filter to find what you are looking for.

FIRST STEPS IN YOUR APPLICATION

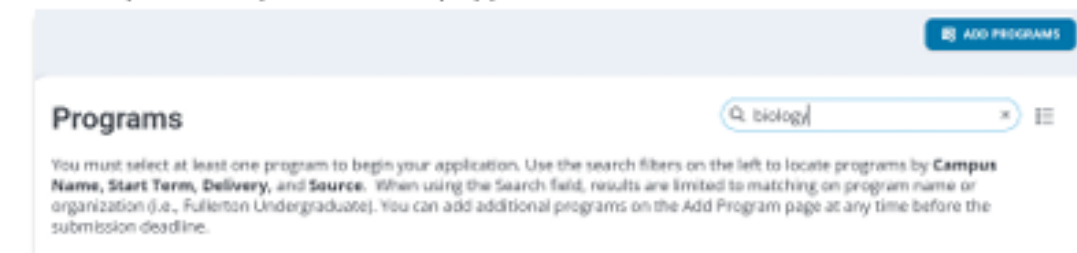

Selecting what program(s) you will apply to

After you complete your Extended Profile, click, Save & Continue. From the Programs page, you can select the specific program(s) you will apply to.

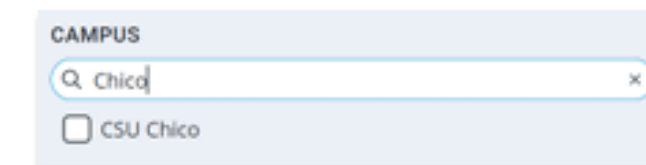

Finding a program

You can search for programs several ways. The best way to search is by program name or by CSU campus.

- To search by program name, use the Programs search box. You can also use this search box to search by CSU campus name or by application term.

A screenshot of the 'Programs' search interface. At the top right is a blue button labeled 'ADD PROGRAMS'. Below it is a search box with the text 'biology' and a magnifying glass icon on the left and a close 'x' icon on the right. Below the search box is a small text block: 'You must select at least one program to begin your application. Use the search filters on the left to locate programs by Campus Name, Start Term, Delivery, and Source. When using the Search field, results are limited to matching on program name or organization (i.e., Fullerton Undergraduate). You can add additional programs on the Add Program page at any time before the submission deadline.'

- To search for programs offered at a campus, use the Campus search filter:

A screenshot of the 'CAMPUS' search filter. It features a search box with the text 'Chico' and a magnifying glass icon on the left and a close 'x' icon on the right. Below the search box is a checkbox labeled 'CSU Chico'.

Additionally, you can use the Filters menu on the left sidebar to search for programs by application term, delivery format (online, face to face, hybrid), or source (campus program or extended learning program).

Selecting a program

Once you have found a program you wish to apply to click the plus sign to add to your application.

You can apply to as many campuses as you wish, but you can only apply to one program per campus per application term. Once you are done making your selection(s), click Continue.

NOTE: Programs offered through a campus' Extended Learning Office are self-support programs with their own tuition, fee, registration, and financial aid structures. For this reason, programs offered through the Extended Learning Office may not qualify for some state or federal financial aid. Students who choose to enroll in a self-support program may not switch between self-support and state-funded degree programs offered on this campus.
